

MUST EAT

Bengali 'Ilish' Fish curry
in mustard

MUST SEE

The one-horned Rhinos
in Kaziranga

MUST DO

Tea tasting

MUST EXPLORE

The ruins of Rabten,
the erstwhile capital
of Sikkim

MUST NOT MISS

Rumtek Monastery

MUST DISCOVER

Majuli Islands

GLOSSARY of EXPERIENCES

KOLKATA

Dalhousie Square on Foot: A perfect introduction to British Calcutta which gives you a sneak peek into what went into the making of the colonial capital of India.

Enjoy an Adda Session with the Locals: An informal chit-chat over a cup of tea, popularly known as 'adda', which is quintessentially how the locals spend their evenings in the company of friends, discussing anything and everything under the sun, from cricket to politics.

Park Street on Foot: Explore

this hugely famous (and infamous) promenade that was once the pleasure capital of the British Empire.

Sova Bazaar on Foot: Sova Bazaar is the vibrant hub of traditional Bengali culture and the erstwhile quarters of the 'natives' during Imperial India.

Confluence of Culture Walk: A fascinating walk that lets you experience the confluence of cultures in Kolkata.

Walking Around the Oberoi Grand: Walk around the Oberoi Grand, an iconic Kolkata landmark, to feel the vibe of the city.

Mullick Ghat Flower Market on Foot: Walk under the Howrah Bridge to explore the Mullick Ghat Flower Market, the oldest but also one of the most vibrant markets of the city, by the river Ganga.

A Two-Day Textile Workshop: A hands-on workshop, working with textiles and learning various processes and techniques.

Literary tour of Kolkata: Learn some interesting facts about the rich and multi-layered literary history of Kolkata.